GREETINGS FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Sharon L. Gaber

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on reaching this important milestone! Commencement is one of our most cherished traditions, one that marks a major milestone for you, as we celebrate the culmination of your transformative journey at UNC Charlotte. While you have done the hard work, this is also a day for your family, friends and faculty members to commemorate.

This year marks the 75th anniversary of UNC Charlotte's founding. In that short time, we have risen from a single center offering evening classes to 278 students to North Carolina's urban research university with more than 30,000 students. While we are still young, we have a rich history in making the dream of higher education a reality for students, in North Carolina and beyond.

Our many accomplishments over these 75 years have been made possible by the extraordinary students, exceptional faculty and staff, dedicated alumni, generous friends and strong leaders, who helped us move forward.

Charlotte is a University on the move, shaping what's next for our students and alumni, as well as our city, state and world. In the last few months alone, we have achieved national recognition for innovation, social mobility and our response to COVID-19. And last fall, we announced a transformational move – the leap from Conference USA to the American Athletic Conference.

You should be proud of the degree you have earned from UNC Charlotte, as it provides you with much more than career opportunities: It represents the exceptional education you received. Throughout your time at Charlotte, you have grown intellectually, emotionally and socially through lively classroom discussions, campus activities and internships. You have had opportunities to interact with individuals from other cultures and to engage in the greater Charlotte community. And as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic, you have had to adjust to new ways of learning and studying. Through it all you have been resilient, and you have persevered.

You now have the tools needed to become a successful leader within your workplaces and in your community. I speak for the UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees, our faculty and staff, alumni and friends, when I offer congratulations, and tell you that we are proud of your accomplishments. Thank you for letting us be a part of this significant journey in your life.

You are now beginning a new relationship with the University as a proud member of the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association, more than 160,000 strong, spread out across the globe. Use this network. Get involved and stay engaged.

May your pride for UNC Charlotte grow stronger as the years go by, and may you continue to cherish the friendships and memories you made on campus. Most importantly, always remember that wherever you go, you are a 49er!

Cordially,

Sharon L. Gaber
Chancellor

UNC CHARLOTTE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Susan D. DeVore, Chair

Susan DeVore '81 is the former CEO and ongoing advisor to Premier with approximately 40 years of experience. DeVore's tenure with Premier has centered on driving innovation in healthcare and leading the industry through profound change by engaging stakeholders to co-develop solutions that support high-quality, efficient and sustainable care delivery models.

DeVore is an industry-leading thinker who has been named multiple times to Modern Healthcare's 100 Most Influential People and Top 25 Women in Healthcare lists. She is the recipient of the Charlotte Business Journal's 2018 Women in Business Lifetime Achievement Award, was named to Becker's Hospital Review's 2017 100 Great Healthcare Leaders to Know, and was recognized as a 2016 UNC Charlotte Distinguished Alumnus.

DeVore serves on the board of directors of Advent Health, Unum Group, and Anthem, Inc. In addition, DeVore serves as the chair of the UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees. Previously she served on the board of directors of Premier Inc. and served as the chair and a member of the board of trustees of the Healthcare Leadership Council, a D.C. based policy organization.

Under DeVore's leadership, Premier has been named as one of the World's Most Ethical Companies for the past 14 years and received the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award.

The UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees also includes Dennis N. Bunker III, Vice Chair; Carlos E. Sanchez, Secretary; Sharon Allred Decker; Wendy J. Grubbs, Christine P. Katziff; J. Brett Keeter; Fred W. Klein, Jr.; David W. Mildenberg; Sasha J. Weintraub; Dontá L. Wilson; Teross W. Young, Jr.; and Tatiyana G. Larson, Student Body President.

The new University logo was adopted in August of 2021 and captures the trailblazing spirit of UNC Charlotte: a strong and powerful institution, boldly charging into the future, much like the city we call home. The centerpiece is a distinctive mark called the "All-In C" that places the classic 49ers' gold-mining pick inside a collegiate-inspired "C" with beveled corners. It is an icon that represents the power to break new ground, the persistence to discover the unknown and the promise to build the future. The 9-degree forward tilt illustrates the brand's positive energy and forward momentum. The new University mark, along with the 2020 athletics mark, was designed by Todd Aldridge '92, a distinguished alumnus of UNC Charlotte's College of Arts + Architecture.

UNC CHARLOTTE BELL

The UNC Charlotte Bell, which for many years hung in the belfry of the old Elizabeth School at East Fifth Street and Travis Avenue in Charlotte, was given to Charlotte College in 1960 to be rung on ceremonial occasions.

It has been rung on special occasions such as March 2, 1965, when Charlotte College became the fourth branch of the University of North Carolina System and on August 11, 2010, to celebrate clearing the final hurdle to field UNC Charlotte's football team.

COMMENCEMENT BELL RINGERS

The ringing of the UNC Charlotte Bell at Commencement is an honorable tradition that recognizes an outstanding student leader who has demonstrated exemplary 49er spirit.

The student leaders chosen to ring the bell for the May 2022 Commencement Ceremonies are Samantha A. Shefte (Friday morning), Kiran S. Budhrani (Friday evening), and Ryen K. Boleware (Saturday morning).

TURNING OF THE TASSEL

In earlier times, universities awarded each graduate a hood signifying their academic station. Over the years, the hood for undergraduates has been replaced by a tassel. Tradition requires that before graduation the tassel is worn on the right hand side of the cap. After graduation, as a symbol of a new degree holder, the tassel is worn on the left.

Charles "Vince" Graham, Jr., Senior Class President, will lead the undergraduate candidates in the turning of the tassel.

Simon M. Sami, Graduate and Professional Student Government President, will lead the graduate candidates in the turning of the tassel.

BONNIE E. CONE, OUR FOUNDER

(1907-2003)

Bonnie E. Cone, the founder of UNC Charlotte, served the institution from its earliest days in 1946. Beginning as a teacher that year, she became director of the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina in 1947. She persuaded the legislature to keep the institution alive in 1949 when it was scheduled to close, resulting in the establishment of Charlotte College, which she served as president. The college became a four-year, state-supported institution in 1963. Cone was given her greatest acclaim for leading the successful campaign to convert Charlotte College into The University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 1965. She then served as vice chancellor for student affairs until her official retirement. Cone died March 8, 2003. In spring 2004, she was interred in Van Landingham Glen on the campus she loved and to which she dedicated her life.

EXPLANATION OF HONORS PROGRAMS, MERIT SCHOLARS, AND ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

Honors: The Honors College at UNC Charlotte provides students robust experiences crossing academic, cultural, community, and personal contexts, including undergraduate research, engagement with cultural variety, and the creation of community within the University and across the Charlotte metropolitan area. We support students as they become agents of their own vision, developing intellectually, culturally, and civically.

In all aspects of the Honors College experience, faculty, staff, and students embody:

- Intellectual curiosity and growth
- Collaboration and mutual investment in excellence as scholar citizens
- Diversity, inclusion, and equitable access
- Integrity and trustworthiness
- Treating all with dignity and respect

University Honors Program: Directly administered by the Honors College, the University Honors Program (UHP) is the oldest and largest multi-year honors program at UNC Charlotte, welcoming students from any major. As an interdisciplinary honors program, UHP encourages students to integrate learning from multiple academic disciplines with their own lived experiences to create new knowledge that is more than just the sum of its parts. Our students are also committed to putting their learning into practice through community-engaged coursework and program-wide service, enrichment, and social opportunities. To graduate with University Honors, a student must: complete all program requirements, including honors coursework; maintain a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and a 3.2 grade point average in honors courses; and receive a grade of "A" on the honors capstone thesis or project.

Department/College Honors: To graduate with honors recognition in a department or college honors program, a student will be recommended by the program's honors committee if they meet the grade point averages required (i.e., cumulative, in the department/college, and in honors courses), as well as complete the following:

- All required honors courses
- An honors capstone thesis or project, and receive an "A" for that course
- Any additional requirements specified by the program

Dual Honors: Students must complete requirements for two honors programs.

Merit Scholarships: Albert Scholars, Crown Scholars, Freeman Scholars, Johnson Scholars, Levine Scholars, and Martin Scholars are recipients of major four-year merit scholarships funded by University donors. Students participate in programming that fosters intellectual, social, and civic engagement and must continue to meet all scholarship conditions.

<https://levinescholars.charlotte.edu>, <https://honorscollege.charlotte.edu/about-us/merit-scholarships>

Graduation with Honors: Honors and merit scholars receive a notation on their transcript and a certificate. Honors and merit scholars graduation regalia includes custom-designed medallions and stoles denoting the honors and merit scholars programs.

Graduation with Academic Distinction: Undergraduate degrees are awarded Summa Cum Laude when the graduate's cumulative grade point average is 3.9 to 4.0, Magna Cum Laude when the grade point average is 3.7 or above but less than 3.9, and Cum Laude when the grade point average is 3.4 or above but less than 3.7. To be eligible to graduate with academic distinction, a student must earn a grade point average computed on at least 48 semester hours of credit completed in residence at UNC Charlotte. Honor cord colors are green/white for Summa Cum Laude graduates, white for Magna Cum Laude graduates, and green for Cum Laude graduates.

The commencement program must be prepared in advance. Therefore, all notations for honors are based upon student achievements as of the preceding term and are tentative. Final determination of graduation with honors or with distinction is made upon completion of the student's final term.

The honor of being a Graduate School student marshal goes to students who exemplify outstanding academic and leadership skills. Only graduate students recommended by The Graduate School are considered for this honor.

DEAN W. COLVARD, FIRST CHANCELLOR (1913-2007)

In April 1966, Dr. Dean W. Colvard became the first chancellor of The University of North Carolina at Charlotte. During his 12-year tenure, he presided over a period of rapid campus growth and development. Under his leadership, the institution was organized into colleges, residence halls were built, graduate work was initiated, and long-range planning started. His accomplishments included helping to create the University Research Park and the University's Urban Institute, whose mission is to seek solutions to the social, economic, and environmental challenges facing Charlotte and its urban communities. Colvard joined the University from the presidency of Mississippi State University, and he also served as a dean at North Carolina State University. Following his retirement in December 1978, Colvard helped complete Charlotte's Discovery Place Museum and was the founding board chair of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics. He also wrote books about his experience at NC State, Mississippi State, and UNC Charlotte. In 2001, Colvard received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association's Alumnus by Choice Award, and in 2004, he received the Echo Foundation's Award Against Indifference. Colvard died in June 2007.

HONORARY DEGREE: DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Joe L. Price is a 1983 UNC Charlotte alumnus, earning a Bachelor of Arts degree in Accounting from the Belk College of Business. He has led a successful career, spending most of his time in various senior executive roles at Bank of America, including as President of Consumer and Small Business Banking, Chief Financial Officer, and Global Corporate and Investment Banking Risk Management Executive. After retiring from the bank, Joe joined Falfurrias Capital Partners and is a partner in that firm. He currently serves on the board of a number of businesses including Industry Dive, Crosslake Technologies, Ballast Research, Tax Guard, LLC, Training The Street, Chargeback Gurus, My Code, Engage fi and Commodity and Ingredient Hedging.

Within the University, Joe served and continues to contribute as a member on numerous boards and committees. He served on the University's Board of Trustees for twelve years beginning in 2007, including three years as Chair from 2016 to 2019. He also served on the Endowment Board and the Belk College of Business Advisory Council. Joe was an integral member of the Campaign Executive Committee for the University's largest-ever fundraising campaign, Exponential: The Campaign for UNC Charlotte, helping to guide the University to achieve its $200 million fundraising goal – raising a total of $218,220,737.

Joe's involvement in UNC Charlotte's athletics program has also been transformative for the University. Joe served on the Football Feasibility Committee and then as an Executive Chair of the Football Fundraising Capital Campaign to help launch UNC Charlotte's football program. In this role, Joe assisted in successfully securing funds for the Jerry Richardson Stadium and the Judy W. Rose Football Center. He also led a group of volunteers in a grassroots effort to sell 49er Seat Licenses for football. Joe played an instrumental role in the fundraising efforts that secured more than $25 million in support of football. He is currently serving on the Athletics Facilities Master Vision Fundraising Committee to secure funding to support the University's athletics facilities. His proven leadership is key in this expansive effort which will further transform the landscape of the University's campus.

In addition to his far-reaching fundraising efforts, Joe and his wife, Christine, have generously given personal contributions to UNC Charlotte in support of various campus programs. As a result of his generous financial support, the Christine F. Price Center for Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) was opened in 2017. Following the University's tragic loss of life on campus during the April 30, 2019 shooting, the CAPS played an integral role in the University's ability to provide essential emotional support to the University community during this difficult time. In response to COVID-19, the Prices made substantial gifts to the Student Emergency Fund and the Jamil Niner Student Pantry to support students experiencing financial hardships as a result of the pandemic.

Joe has not only been instrumental in the growth and success of UNC Charlotte, but has generously supported, in both time and financial contributions, a variety of nonprofit organizations in the Charlotte region and beyond. Most notably, Joe served as Chair of the Board of Directors for Habitat for Humanity International. Joe and Christine have traveled the country and around the world supporting Habitat builds. Combining two of his passions—UNC Charlotte and Habitat for Humanity— Joe and Christine are ardent supporters of UNC Charlotte's Habitat for Humanity build. His fundraising efforts make this home-build a possibility each year, allowing UNC Charlotte students, faculty, alumni, and staff to come together to build a home for a family in need.

Joe and Christine have supported a host of other local organizations including the United Way of Central Carolinas, Central Piedmont Community College, Charlotte Latin School, the Arts & Science Council, and the local Habitat for Humanity chapter. They led the planning and fundraising for a new outreach center at Sharon Presbyterian Church, the Christine Price Outreach Center. Joe and Christine also support Freedom Communities with the Marlborough Woods Project to preserve affordable housing in West Charlotte. Currently they are supporting Habitat for Humanity's affiliates bordering Ukraine as they assist Ukrainians displaced by the tragic war.

For his countless efforts on behalf of UNC Charlotte and the citizens of Charlotte, the region, the state, and the world, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte awards the honorary degree, Doctor of Public Service, to Joe L. Price.

GREETINGS FROM THE UNDERGRADUATE GRADUATING CLASS
ELIZABETH A. MCCLURE
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, MANAGEMENT

Hello, everyone. My name is Liz McClure and I am honored to be here. I want to offer the biggest congratulations to all of my fellow graduates. Can we take a brief moment to appreciate every obstacle we overcame to get here? Each and every one of you is unbelievably impressive. I'd also like to thank the UNC Charlotte faculty and staff. Your words of encouragement and guidance helped me and other students work through the many challenges we have faced.

Students are given the difficult task of balancing and multitasking to the highest degree possible. Some of you are facing the world on your own for the very first time. Some of you are first generation college graduates. Many of you are balancing a job and your studies. Some of us have faced this challenge a little later in life and with that, a few extra responsibilities on our plate. All of these are hard enough without the added challenge of quickly jumping to virtual learning in response to Covid-19.

One of the most difficult obstacles I faced was my first semester back to school after more than a couple of years away. Okay, definitely closer to eight years. The comments from coworkers and acquaintances quickly shifted from encouragement to horror at the length of time it would take me to obtain this degree. I began to feel discouraged because I had underestimated the commitment and energy this would take and I was second-guessing my choice.

I found myself in a conversation with a friend in which I was lamenting about the years it would take me to reach my goal. She reminded me of how long I had wanted to return to school and how much this moment would mean to me. She also gave me some of the best advice I've ever received: the time will pass no matter what. The time will pass if I work towards my degree or if I spend it bingeing the latest Netflix hit. Why not invest in myself and come out the other side with a degree to show for it? Though these last couple of years have shown that our time management skills may allow for more Netflix than we previously thought.

We've lived through the changing of education as we know it and are walking into a different workplace than any graduating class before. With this we also have the opportunity to shape our future workplaces to meet and exceed our expectations. But we will also face obstacles like never before. You will find yourself being second-guessed or doubted by others because they believe your idea might be too time consuming or require too much effort. In those moments, I hope you remember that any goals and aspirations you set for yourself are worth the time and effort it takes to reach them.

Congratulations, Class of 2022!

Thank you.

BE A PART OF 49ER WAY

Dedicated in 2016, 49er Way is one of UNC Charlotte's landmarks. This brick walkway is located between Cameron Boulevard and the football stadium and is the most traversed and photographed walkway on campus. These bricks, honoring UNC Charlotte alumni, lead the 49er football team, Pride of Niner Nation Marching Band, students, alumni, faculty, staff and fans to the stadium. Commemorate your hard work and dedication by purchasing a personalized brick or make a gift to honor a special graduate and leave their legacy on 49er Way.

For more information and to purchase your brick, visit crowdfund.charlotte.edu/classgift.

HISTORY OF THE ALMA MATER

Creation of UNC Charlotte's Alma Mater is rooted deep in the University's history. It is part of the "Academic Festival March" that was composed for UNC Charlotte by James Helme Sutcliffe, a Charlotte composer and music critic who lived in Germany at the time.

Dr. Loy Witherspoon, professor of religious studies, commissioned the march in 1965 after he learned Charlotte College would become a campus of the consolidated UNC system. The march was initially performed in 1967 for the installation of Dean W. Colvard as UNC Charlotte's first chancellor. Afterward, it was performed as a recessional at every commencement held during Chancellor Colvard's tenure.

UNC Charlotte founder Bonnie Cone, upon hearing the march, remarked, "I can hear an alma mater in it," referring to a hymn-like final refrain. Dr. Robert Rieke, a professor of history, also heard an alma mater in the march. During a 1990 trip to Germany, Rieke visited march composer Sutcliffe, where he picked up a recording of the march. Rieke began writing words to fit the final refrain. On Christmas Eve 1991, Rieke sent Bonnie Cone the words and music as a Christmas present to her and the University, from which he had retired a year earlier.

Chancellor James H. Woodward approved Rieke's composition as the University's Alma Mater in April 1992. It was sung for the first time at the following May commencement and has been performed at every commencement since.

GREETINGS FROM THE GRADUATING CLASS

LASHANA M. WIGGS

DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Good afternoon, my name is LaShana Wiggs, and I am a graduate in the Doctor in Business Administration program. I would like to thank the Graduate School for this opportunity to speak to you. Congratulations to the graduating class of 2022. I am sure you are excited and extremely proud to be sitting here today. I invite you to reflect on your journey that led you to this moment. Throughout the process of earning your degree, you may have experienced adversity and setbacks. One setback that I experienced was being diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis in the middle of earning my degree and slowly losing my ability to walk. I had a decision to make. Do I let my circumstances win, or do I complete what I had set out to do?

This journey at UNC Charlotte either taught me new principles I needed to learn or reiterated principles that were important to embrace. I'd like to share three of them with you:

The first is setbacks happen but perspective matters. We completed our studies during a pandemic. We became adaptive, persistent, and resilient to not let a pandemic stop us from meeting our goals. Classes migrated from in-person to virtual and while it required an adjustment, we did not stop. You may have experienced a medical diagnosis, like me, but you didn't let that diagnosis hold you hostage nor deter you from your goal. The fact that you are here today is a testament to your resilience.

Next, I had to learn to inhale confidence and exhale doubts. I'm sure you can think of times when you questioned if you made the right decision or if you were built for this journey. Let me be the first to tell you, you belong here and don't let anyone (including yourself) tell you otherwise. Although I worked full-time and raised a family, I made time to attend Write-a-thons or Write-Nights to get focused study time. My cohort became my extended family. I devoted time to develop a muscle that I didn't realize I even had and my journey in this program has done tremendous work to cultivate abilities within myself.

Last, I had to lean in and trust the process. There is a process for a reason. My dissertation chair would tell me "I am Team LaShana" and just hearing her reiterate to me that she's on my side reinforced that I needed to trust her and trust the process.

These principles helped me persist and embrace being a more resilient person. In addition to slowly regaining my ability to walk, I became a better leader, a stronger researcher, and a more confident person because of my time in the DBA program.

As you mark this wonderful milestone in your life, remember what you learned. What you have overcome and who you have become. The world is waiting on the "YOU" you have developed into. You accomplished a remarkable achievement and during a pandemic no less. You have exhibited strength, persistence and resilience and the waiting world beyond these doors needs those attributes from you. I challenge each of you to not just leave your mark on this university but take your mark and imprint it on the world beyond these walls.

Congratulations class of 2022.

E.K. FRETWELL, U.S. HIGHER EDUCATION LEADER (1923-2012)

Dr. E.K. Fretwell used his national higher education leadership to gain recognition for UNC Charlotte. He became the University's second chancellor in January 1979 after serving as president of State University of New York College at Buffalo, and before that as assistant commissioner for higher education of the New York State Education Department. During his career, he led some of America's most prominent higher education associations - president of the American Association for Higher Education, president of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, chair of the American Council on Education, and chair of the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation. In addition, Fretwell was named one of the 100 most effective chancellors and university presidents in the United States in a national study. After retiring in 1989, he served as interim president of the five-campus University of Massachusetts, authored several books on university management, and consulted on higher education around the country and the world. He was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Public Service degree during UNC Charlotte's spring 1998 Commencement ceremonies. In 2002, he received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association's Alumnus by Choice Award. Fretwell died October 18, 2012.

UNC BOARD OF GOVERNORS AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN TEACHING

ANABEL ALIAGA-BUCHENAU

DEPARTMENT OF LANGUAGES AND CULTURE STUDIES

The Board of Governors Award for Excellence in Teaching was established in 1994 to underscore the importance of teaching and to encourage, identify, recognize, reward, and support good teaching within the university. This award is given annually to a tenured faculty member from each UNC campus. Winners must have taught at their present institutions for at least seven years.

The 17 recipients were nominated by individual campus committees and selected by the Board of Governors Committee on Personnel and Tenure. Each award winner will receive a commemorative bronze medallion and a $12,500 cash prize.

Dr. Anabel Aliaga-Buchenau is recognized as a gifted and versatile classroom instructor. Dr. Michèle Bissière, Chair of the Department of Languages and Culture Studies, stated, “She shines in the classroom and always receives near perfect evaluations that are well above the department mean. Students’ comments are full of superlatives, such as “amazing,” “awesome,” or “best ever.” Students praise her infectious enthusiasm for the material, her positive and compassionate attitude, her ability to relate to students from different backgrounds and at different levels of proficiency, and her availability outside class.”

Dr. Aliaga-Buchenau joined the Department of Languages and Culture Studies in 2002 as an Assistant Professor in German and Comparative Literature. She was promoted to Associate Professor in 2006, began serving as Associate Chair for the department in 2014, and was promoted to Professor in 2019.

Aliaga-Buchenau restructured the German curriculum, making it more relevant to students by including career-oriented courses in translating, business, and engineering. She also added humanities-based offerings in youth literature and contemporary literature and culture. She led the development of undergraduate and graduate certificates in translating, Business German, and German for Engineering. She also had an important role in the development of minors in Chinese and Arabic Studies, and the creation of the minor in Holocaust, Genocide, and Human Rights.

Under her leadership, the number of German majors has more than quadrupled. This achievement drew national attention with The Chronicle of Higher Education ranking the program in Spring 2019 as #2 in the U.S. and #1 in North Carolina for the number of graduates.

“Dr. Buchenau is honestly the best professor that I have ever had. She is constantly presenting us with opportunities to go further in the German major. I have never had a professor more willing to help you succeed in your field,” said Eric Stetter, a student majoring in International Business and German.

Other opportunities created for students by Dr. Aliaga Buchenau included a spring break study abroad program and an intensive summer language program at the Goethe-Institut in Germany for which she raised scholarship money to enable students to attend. Aliaga-Buchenau says, “The students are what interest me. I am fascinated to see what happens when they learn a language, in this case German, and more importantly, how they grow and change when they come in contact with another culture.”

Aliaga-Buchenau's awards and accolades received: the 2009 Bonnie E. Cone Early-Career Professorship in Teaching, nominated in 2011 for the Carnegie Professor of the Year Award, selected as a 2012 finalist for the Bank of America Award for Teaching Excellence, received the 2018 UNC Charlotte International Education Award, and was awarded in 2021 UNC Charlotte's top teaching award, the Bank of America Award for Teaching Excellence.

HONORARY DEGREE: DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

KAREN A. POPP

Karen Ann Popp distinguished herself throughout her career as a leader committed to bettering the lives of those around her through inclusiveness and connectivity. Her work as an internationally recognized attorney focuses on issues of national and global importance. Karen's four decades of leadership and service to her alma mater, UNC Charlotte, have contributed significantly to the University's exponential growth.

Karen is currently the Global Co-Leader of Sidley Austin's White Collar: Government Litigation and Investigations group. After graduating cum laude from UNC Charlotte in 1980, she went on to study law at Oxford University on a Rotary International Scholarship before earning her law degree from UNC-Chapel Hill. After graduating from UNC School of Law, she clerked for The Honorable Sam J. Ervin, III on the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit and began her law practice on Wall Street at Sullivan & Cromwell. She then served as Assistant U.S. Attorney in the Eastern District of New York, and an attorney advisor to U.S. Attorney General Janet Reno in the Office of Legal Counsel at the U.S. Department of Justice in Washington D.C.

Before returning to private law practice, she served as Associate White House Counsel for President Bill Clinton.

Karen's impact at Sidley and in the greater legal community has gone far beyond her day-to-day work. After leaving the White House, she co-founded in 1999 the Women's White Collar Defense Association, promoting the common business and professional interests of women attorneys and other professionals who specialize in the representation of corporations, organizations, or individuals facing government enforcement actions. At Sidley, she also developed a firm-wide women's program, formed the Diversity Committee for Racial, Ethnic and LGBTQ Communities at Sidley's D.C. office, served as the first chair of that same office's Women's Committee, and spear-headed task forces on Diversity and Women, which was formed by Sidley's executive committee.

In addition to the achievements on behalf of the state and nation, Karen also has been recognized for a number of exceptional and distinctive achievements on behalf of the University and the greater Charlotte region. As an undergraduate, she was elected the first female Student Body President in the UNC System and founded the Student Alumni Ambassadors Program, a program that continues to provide opportunities for UNC Charlotte's finest students to connect with community leaders, alumni and top donors. Karen also founded UNC Charlotte's first honor society, which enhanced the University's national recognition and academic reputation, encouraging talented students to attend UNC Charlotte, and laid the foundation for the Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Beta Kappa Society chapters that are now at the University.

Karen continues to make a number of significant contributions to the betterment of the University and of the surrounding region. Over the course of her three-year term as Chair of UNC Charlotte's Board of Trustees, followed by a three-year term as Chair of the UNC Charlotte Foundation Board, the University grew and raised more money than any other time in its history. Under Karen's leadership, the Foundation developed the plans for and launched the construction of the UNC Charlotte Marriott Hotel and Conference Center.

Karen has received numerous professional awards and honors as a top attorney in the world and a trailblazer for women. She was also appointed by the North Carolina Governor to serve on the North Carolina Council for Women in recognition of her longtime commitment to advancing women. Among the many other awards and accolades Karen has received are: The Top 250 Women in Litigation, "First Annual Transformative Leadership Award" given by Inside Counsel Magazine in 2010, Washingtonian magazine's roster of "Top Lawyers in Washington," The Best Lawyers in America in Criminal Defense: White-Collar and Commercial Litigation the Washington, D.C. edition of the "Super Lawyer" directory, The International Who's Who of Business Crime Defense Lawyers, Crisis Leadership Trailblazer by the National Law Journal, Top 30 lawyer by Global Investigations Review and Euromoney Expert Guides 2021 edition of the "Best of the Best USA," a National White Collar Defense Star by Benchmark Litigation and The Thurgood Marshall Award given by the New York City Bar Association.

For her countless efforts on behalf of UNC Charlotte and the citizens of Charlotte, the region and the state, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte awards the honorary degree, Doctor of Public Service, to Karen Ann Popp.

RACHEL L. HAYES

BACHELOR OF ARTS, BIOLOGY

BACHELOR OF ARTS, SPANISH

Good morning, graduates, families, faculty, and staff. My name is Rachel Hayes, and I am graduating with my Bachelor of Arts degrees in biology and Spanish. I would first like to say congratulations to the class of 2022! I could not be more honored to share this moment with you all.

I also want to say thank you to each and every professor, staff and faculty member that has helped to shape us all into the class we are today. We could not have gotten to this moment without you.

I stand before you today, relishing in what is a very bittersweet moment. On one hand, it is a little daunting that we are all about to transition into the next phase of our lives.

The days of narrowly avoiding the rabid geese outside of SAC are soon to be gone. Some of us may never hear the haunting “craver road walk sign is on” again.

But what makes this moment so sweet is that the culmination of all our hard work from the last several years is finally coming to fruition. All the hours we’ve put in, the tests we’ve taken, and every moment we thought we would not make it to this point, has finally become worth it.

But what also makes this moment so sweet is that we now have the increased opportunity and obligation to use everything we’ve learned since our first day on campus to serve the world around us.

I know at face value this seems like a vague responsibility, and it can be so hard to know where to even begin, but if anyone is well equipped to tackle the inequities of the world, it is the class of 2022.

Our class is unique because during our time at UNC Charlotte we’ve gained the ability to face challenges head-on, we’ve found new ways to adapt to unprecedented times, we’ve discovered how to learn in new ways that we’ve never had to learn before, and we have grown to love each other through some of the toughest moments of our lives so far.

And this is exactly how we tackle the injustices of the world; this is where true change begins. It begins with us making the decision not to shy away from the hard moments.

It begins with adaptability and learning to find the beauty in every hardship life throws our way. It begins with seeking to empathize with the world around us. And it begins with pursuing love at every corner.

Class of 2022, I have no doubt that each and every one of you will become something great. However, if we can unify under the common pursuit of loving those around us to the fullest extent, I know that together we can be a true force to be reckoned with.

I leave you today with the plea to not take your degree or your experiences here for granted. We’ve all been given an incredible opportunity to create a world of which to truly be proud.

So, let’s not allow this opportunity to go to waste. Let’s be the class that sets a new standard of what it means to change the world through the pursuit of love and empathy. Thank you and congratulations, Class of 2022!

JAMES H. WOODWARD, BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

Dr. James H. Woodward became UNC Charlotte’s third chancellor in 1989, immediately establishing himself as one of the leading executives of the Charlotte metropolitan region. A U.S. Air Force veteran, he worked in private industry and taught at North Carolina State University, the U.S. Air Force Academy, and the University of Alabama at Birmingham, where he was a senior vice president for academic affairs, prior to coming to UNC Charlotte. Under his leadership, UNC Charlotte launched ambitious plans for both physical and intellectual growth. Woodward built strong support among the region’s corporate and political leaders, obtained approval to expand the University’s mission to include doctoral programs, and raised the University to doctoral/research intensive status. He established UNC Charlotte Uptown to serve students in the central business district. An engineer, Woodward generated support to build the James H. Barnhardt Student Activity Center and the Irwin Belk Track and Field Center, obtained state funding for doubling the size of the J. Murrey Atkins Library, and was instrumental in garnering public support to pass a $3.1 billion statewide bond referendum that enabled UNC Charlotte to construct or renovate nearly a dozen buildings. He retired in 2005.

Woodward has received numerous honors, including the naming of the science and technology building in 2005 as James H. and Martha H. Woodward Hall in recognition of his 16 years of service. In May 2011, UNC Charlotte awarded him an honorary degree, Doctor of Public Service. Woodward received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association’s Alumnus by Choice Award in 2012. In November 2017, he was awarded the North Carolina Award for Public Service, the highest award a civilian can receive from the Governor.

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

UNC Charlotte was one of a generation of institutions founded in metropolitan areas following World War II. Created as the Charlotte Center, the institution opened on September 23, 1946. It offered evening classes to an initial class of 278 freshmen and sophomores in the facilities of Charlotte's Central High School. In 1949, the city's pioneering business and civic leaders, aware of the region's unmet need for a public institution of higher education, moved to have the Charlotte Center taken over by the city school district and operated as Charlotte College, offering the first two years of college courses.

By 1961, the firmly established Charlotte College was experiencing rapid growth that resulted in the establishment of a campus of its own. In the same year, Charlotte College leaders moved its burgeoning student population into the first two buildings on what would become a 1,000-acre campus ten miles from downtown Charlotte. In 1963, the North Carolina legislature approved bills making Charlotte College a four-year, state-supported institution. In 1965, the legislature passed bills designating the College the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, the fourth campus of the consolidated state system. Expansion continued as the University began offering master's degrees in 1969. In 1992, UNC Charlotte received authorization for its first doctoral programs. Today, celebrating its 75th anniversary, UNC Charlotte is the state's urban research institution and the system's second largest public university with greater than 30,000 students enrolled in 77 bachelor's, 65 master's and 24 doctoral degree programs.

PHILIP L. DUBOIS
 ENROLLMENT GROWTH AND ACADEMIC EXPANSION

At the time of his retirement on June 30, 2020, Dr. Philip L. Dubois, UNC Charlotte's fourth chancellor, was the senior chancellor in the University of North Carolina system. He led the system's fastest-growing institution, directing a 43% growth in enrollment, an expansion of academic programs, implementation of diversity-related initiatives, growth in research funding, and significant construction and renovation of campus facilities. Under Dubois' strategic direction, football was added to the University's athletics offerings in 2013, and he collaborated with elected officials and the Charlotte Area Transit System to make possible the construction of the light rail line from Center City Charlotte to the UNC Charlotte campus. He also took the University to new levels in fundraising, overseeing the largest private campaign in UNC Charlotte's history, which exceeded its $200 million goal. Dubois' career in higher education spanned more than 40 years. Previously, he served as president of the University of Wyoming, provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNC Charlotte and associate vice chancellor for academic programs at the University of California, Davis. Dubois has been recognized regionally and nationally as an expert in higher education, achieving many awards and accolades during his respected career. In 2020, Dubois was recognized by the American Council on Education with its Outstanding Mentor Award, by the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association with its Honorary Alumnus Award, and by North Carolina Governor Roy Cooper with The Order of the Long Leaf Pine, the state's highest civilian award.

CHANCELLOR SHARON L. GABER

Sharon L. Gaber, Ph.D., became the fifth chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in July 2020.

A native of Southern California, Gaber earned an A.B. in Economics and Urban Studies from Occidental College, an M.P.L. in Urban Planning from the University of Southern California, and a Ph.D. in City & Regional Planning from Cornell University.

Prior to her arrival at UNC Charlotte, Gaber served for five years as the President of the University of Toledo. Earlier in her career, she served as provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Arkansas. She has also served as an interim provost at Auburn University and a faculty member and administrator at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

An academic with a background in city and regional planning, Gaber has written numerous articles on regional and urban planning, public policy, and the social dynamics that affect community decision-making, and she co-authored a book on planning research methods. She recently received the 2022 Career Mastered Distinguished Leadership Award, and she was named by the Charlotte Business Journal as one of the Most Admired CEOs of 2021. She was also named to the Business North Carolina 2021 Power List, and in 2020 she was named a recipient of the YWCA Northwest Ohio Milestone Award for Women's Leadership. She was also designated by Education Dive as one of five higher education leaders to watch in 2018 and beyond. Deeply engaged in community and regional activities, she has served on multiple NCAA committees and was recently appointed to Charlotte's Leading on Opportunity Council. She is a member of the Charlotte Executive Leadership Council, Women Executives, and the International Women's Forum - Carolinas.

Officially the first woman to serve as chancellor of UNC Charlotte, Gaber follows the trail blazed by founding educator Bonnie Cone, who led the institution from 1946-1966 through several stages of growth.

Dr. Gaber is the proud mother of three adult children.
