GREETINGS FROM THE CHANCELLOR

Dear Graduates,

Congratulations on reaching this important milestone! Commencement is one of our most cherished traditions, one that marks a major accomplishment for you, as we celebrate the culmination of your transformative journey at UNC Charlotte. While you have done the hard work, this is also a day for your family, friends and faculty members to celebrate.

The University was established in 1946 as a center offering evening classes to serve veterans returning from World War II. Over our short history, we've grown from 278 students to become North Carolina's urban research university with nearly 30,000 students. While we are still young, we have a rich history in making the dream of higher education a reality for students, in North Carolina and beyond.

Our many accomplishments have been made possible by the extraordinary students, exceptional faculty and staff, dedicated alumni, generous friends and strong leaders who helped us move forward. Charlotte is climbing the ranks. After evaluating more than 1,800 programs across the country, U.S. News & World Report ranked Charlotte #4 in the nation in its 2023 Best Online Bachelor's Programs Ranking. Charlotte also is among the fastest rising U.S. universities in U.S. News' Best Global Universities Rankings, which focus on research and academic excellence.

Further positioning Charlotte for national recognition, Charlotte 49ers Athletics will officially join the American Athletic Conference on July 1.

You should be proud of the degree you have earned from UNC Charlotte, as it provides you with much more than career opportunities and represents the exceptional education you received. Throughout your time at Charlotte, you have grown intellectually, emotionally and socially through lively classroom discussions, campus activities and internships. You have had opportunities to interact with individuals from other cultures and to engage in the greater Charlotte community. You also have had to adjust to new ways of learning and studying. Through it all you have been resilient, and you have persevered.

You now have the tools needed to become a successful leader within your workplaces and in your community. I speak for the UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees, faculty, staff, alumni and friends when I offer congratulations, and tell you that we are proud of your accomplishments. Thank you for letting us be a part of this significant journey in your life.

You are now beginning a new relationship with the University as a proud member of the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association, more than 167,000 strong, spread out across the globe. Use this network. Get involved and stay engaged.

May your Niner pride grow stronger as the years go by, and may you continue to cherish the friendships and memories you made on campus. Most importantly, always remember that wherever you go, you are a 49er!

Cordially,

Sharon L. Gaber
Chancellor

UNC CHARLOTTE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Susan DeVore '81 is the former CEO and ongoing advisor to Premier Inc. with approximately 40 years of experience. DeVore's tenure with Premier has centered on driving innovation in healthcare and leading the industry through profound change by engaging stakeholders to co-develop solutions that support high-quality, efficient and sustainable care delivery models.

DeVore is an industry-leading thinker who has been named multiple times to Modern Healthcare's 100 Most Influential People and Top 25 Women in Healthcare lists. She is the recipient of the Charlotte Business Journal's 2018 Women in Business Lifetime Achievement Award, was named to Becker's Hospital Review's 2017 100 Great Healthcare Leaders to Know, and was recognized as a 2016 UNC Charlotte Distinguished Alumnus.

Previously she served on the board of directors of Premier Inc. and served as the chair and a member of the board of trustees of the Healthcare Leadership Council, a D.C. based policy organization.

Under DeVore's leadership, Premier has been named as one of the World's Most Ethical Companies for the past 15 years and received the Malcolm Baldrige National Quality Award.

The UNC Charlotte Board of Trustees also includes Dennis N. Bunker III, Vice Chair; John A. Bailey; Sharon Allred Decker; Wendy J. Grubbs, Christine P. Katziff; J. Brett Keeter; Fred W. Klein, Jr.; David W. Mildenberg; Sasha J. Weintraub; Dontá L. Wilson; Teross W. Young, Jr.; and Tife Olusesi, Student Body President.

The new University logo was adopted in August of 2021 and captures the trailblazing spirit of UNC Charlotte: a strong and powerful institution, boldly charging into the future, much like the city we call home. The centerpiece is a distinctive mark called the "All-In C" that places the classic 49ers' gold-mining pick inside a collegiate-inspired "C" with beveled corners. It is an icon that represents the power to break new ground, the persistence to discover the unknown and the promise to build the future. The 9-degree forward tilt illustrates the brand's positive energy and forward momentum. The new University mark, along with the 2020 athletics mark, was designed by Todd Aldridge '92, a distinguished alumnus of UNC Charlotte's College of Arts + Architecture and president-elect of the Alumni Association Board of Directors.

UNC CHARLOTTE BELL

The UNC Charlotte Bell, which for many years hung in the belfry of the old Elizabeth School at East Fifth Street and Travis Avenue in Charlotte, was given to Charlotte College in 1963 to be rung on ceremonial occasions.

It has been rung on special occasions such as March 2, 1965, when Charlotte College became the fourth branch of the University of North Carolina System and on August 11, 2010, to celebrate clearing the final hurdle to field UNC Charlotte's football team.

COMMENCEMENT BELL RINGERS

The ringing of the UNC Charlotte Bell at Commencement is an honorable tradition that recognizes an outstanding student leader who has demonstrated exemplary 49er spirit.

The student leaders chosen to ring the bell for the Commencement Ceremonies are Eniolaoluwa H. Ogunyemi (Friday morning), Mahrukh Maqsood (Friday afternoon), Kayla A. Poteat (Saturday morning), and Tiera T. Ray (Saturday afternoon).

TURNING OF THE TASSEL

In earlier times, universities awarded each graduate a hood signifying their academic station. Over the years, the hood for undergraduates has been replaced by a tassel. Tradition requires that before graduation the tassel is worn on the right hand side of the cap. After graduation, as a symbol of a new degree holder, the tassel is worn on the left.

Judith B. VanBoven, Senior Class President, will lead the undergraduate candidates in the turning of the tassel.

Simon M. Sami, Graduate and Professional Student Government President, will lead the graduate candidates in the turning of the tassel.

BONNIE E. CONE, OUR FOUNDER

(1907-2003)

Bonnie E. Cone, the founder of UNC Charlotte, served the institution from its earliest days in 1946. Beginning as a teacher that year, she became director of the Charlotte Center of the University of North Carolina in 1947. She persuaded the legislature to keep the institution alive in 1949 when it was scheduled to close, resulting in the establishment of Charlotte College, which she served as president. The college became a four-year, state-supported institution in 1963. Cone was given her greatest acclaim for leading the successful campaign to convert Charlotte College into The University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 1965. She then served as vice chancellor for student affairs until her official retirement. Cone died March 8, 2003. In spring 2004, she was interred in Van Landingham Glen on the campus she loved and to which she dedicated her life.

EXPLANATION OF HONORS PROGRAMS, MERIT SCHOLARS, AND ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

Honors: The Honors College at UNC Charlotte provides students robust experiences crossing academic, cultural, community, and personal contexts, including undergraduate research, engagement with cultural variety, and the creation of community within the University and across the Charlotte metropolitan area. We support students as they become agents of their own vision, developing intellectually, culturally, and civically.

In all aspects of the Honors College experience, faculty, staff, and students embody:

- Intellectual curiosity and growth
- Collaboration and mutual investment in excellence as scholar citizens
- Diversity, inclusion, and equitable access
- Integrity and trustworthiness
- Treating all with dignity and respect

University Honors Program: Directly administered by the Honors College, the University Honors Program (UHP) is the oldest and largest multi-year honors program at UNC Charlotte, welcoming students from any major. As an interdisciplinary honors program, UHP encourages students to integrate learning from multiple academic disciplines with their own lived experiences, creating new knowledge that is more than just the sum of its parts. Our students put their learning into practice through electing an annual Honors Core Experience such as an internship, undergraduate research, community service, or study abroad. To graduate with University Honors, a student must: complete all program requirements, including 20 hours of honors coursework; maintain a 3.0 cumulative grade point average and a 3.2 grade point average in honors courses; and receive a grade of "A" on the honors capstone thesis or project.

Department/College Honors: To graduate with honors recognition in a department or college honors program, a student will be recommended by the program's honors committee if they meet the grade point averages required (i.e., cumulative, in the department/college, and in honors courses), as well as complete the following:

- All required honors courses
- An honors capstone thesis or project, and receive an "A" for that course
- Any additional requirements specified by the program

Dual Honors: Students must complete requirements for a department or college honors program in addition to the requirements and coursework for either the University Honors Program or the Business Honors Program.

Merit Scholarships: Albert Scholars, Freeman Scholars, Johnson Scholars, Levine Scholars, and Martin Scholars are recipients of major four-year merit scholarships funded by University donors. Students participate in programming that fosters intellectual, social, and civic engagement and must continue to meet all scholarship conditions.

<https://levinescholars.charlotte.edu>, <https://honorscollege.charlotte.edu/about-us/merit-scholarships>

Graduation with Honors: Honors and merit scholars receive a notation on their transcript and a certificate. Honors and merit scholars' graduation regalia includes custom-designed medallions and stoles denoting the honors and merit scholar programs.

Graduation with Academic Distinction: Undergraduate degrees are awarded Summa Cum Laude when the graduate's cumulative grade point average is 3.9 to 4.0, Magna Cum Laude when the grade point average is 3.7 or above but less than 3.9, and Cum Laude when the grade point average is 3.4 or above but less than 3.7. To be eligible to graduate with academic distinction, a student must earn a grade point average computed on at least 48 semester hours of credit completed in residence at UNC Charlotte. Honor cord colors are green/white for Summa Cum Laude graduates, white for Magna Cum Laude graduates, and green for Cum Laude graduates.

The commencement program must be prepared in advance. Therefore, all notations for honors are based upon student achievements as of the preceding term and are tentative. Final determination of graduation with honors or with distinction is made upon completion of the student's final term.

The honor of being a student marshal goes to juniors who have the highest cumulative grade point average among full time students during the previous two semesters. Only students who have completed two semesters or 24 credit hours at UNC Charlotte prior to the current semester are considered for this honor.

The honor of being a Graduate School student marshal goes to students who exemplify outstanding academic and leadership skills. Only graduate students recommended by The Graduate School are considered for this honor.

DEAN W. COLVARD, FIRST CHANCELLOR (1913-2007)

In April 1966, Dr. Dean W. Colvard became the first chancellor of The University of North Carolina at Charlotte. During his 12-year tenure, he presided over a period of rapid campus growth and development. Under his leadership, the institution was organized into colleges, residence halls were built, graduate work was initiated, and long-range planning started. His accomplishments included helping to create the University Research Park and the University's Urban Institute, whose mission is to seek solutions to the social, economic, and environmental challenges facing Charlotte and its urban communities. Colvard joined the University from the presidency of Mississippi State University, and he also served as a dean at North Carolina State University. Following his retirement in December 1978, Colvard helped complete Charlotte's Discovery Place Museum and was the founding board chair of the North Carolina School of Science and Mathematics. He also wrote books about his experience at NC State, Mississippi State, and UNC Charlotte. In 2001, Colvard received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association's Alumnus by Choice Award, and in 2004, he received the Echo Foundation's Award Against Indifference. Colvard died in June 2007.

GREETINGS FROM THE GRADUATING CLASS
DEZANII I. LEWIS
BACHELOR OF ARTS, ENGLISH

Thank you friends, family, faculty, and staff for attending. But most importantly, thank you to the graduating class of 2023 and congratulations to us all.

I'd like to start off by sharing a story. As a sophomore, I took a class on contemporary issues in media. At the end of the semester, the professor placed a garbage can in the center of the classroom. She asked each of us to throw a paper ball into the trash can, no matter where we were seated in the classroom. We all took our shots, with those closest to the can predictably landing their wads of paper into the bin, while the rest of us on the farther edges of the classroom missed. Not me, of course. I made my three-pointer much to the shock and awe of the professor.

She did this exercise to prove a point; she said, "The closer you are to something, the easier it is to see. The farther you are, the harder it is. Unless of course you're Ms. Lewis."

She applied that to the lessons we learned in her class over the course of the semester, but I realize now it can be applied to life.

You see, getting my college degree was not an easy journey. Whether it was financial struggles or discouraging people, I lost sight of my goals because they became too hard to see. I forgot about that wad of paper I threw and became a victim of circumstance.

I stand before you now as an honors student, an adult full time student, a full time worker, and a participant in various extra and co-curricular activities and let me tell you something - the only thing holding me up is this podium.

Whatever the reason, whether it was grades, finances, transportation, or mental health, I'm sure many of us can agree that getting here wasn't easy. Your goals seemed far away and maybe you felt like you were flailing, but look at you now. Look at what you've achieved.

J.R.R. Tolkien wrote one of my favorite fantasy series and in it he says, "Not all who wander are lost."

Class of 2023, my fellow 49ers, today we aren't victims of circumstance and we are not lost. Today we have proven that we earned the right to be here. We triumphed over every tribulation thrust before us, catapulted over every catastrophe, and barrelled past any barrier in our past.

It doesn't matter if you're a legacy student or first generation student. It doesn't matter if you're a traditional or non-traditional student. And it doesn't matter if you're here right when you thought you'd be, or if it took you a bit longer than you hoped to get here. All that matters is that you are here and that is something no one can take from you. Today, we are not victims of circumstance but victors of circumstance. What was once so far away that we couldn't see it, we now hold it in our hands. We are now exactly where we need to be. If no one else, we have done ourselves proud. We have nowhere to go but up and if you wander a little bit along the way, it's okay. Remember that you're not lost, that your goals are never too far to see, and that you are victorious.

TITUS L. HOPPER
DOCTOR OF EDUCATION, EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP

I am Dr. Titus L. Hopper and I am so honored to have the opportunity to stand before this amazing audience to congratulate, celebrate and motivate. On behalf of my 2023 University of North Carolina at Charlotte graduate school peers, I salute our village of supporters and encouragers. I must take a brief moment to salute key members of my village; my wife, Michelle, I can't thank you enough for being you; my two amazing children, Josiah & Lauryn, daddy loves you; the amazing professors who pushed and encouraged us along our journey, we salute you; to my committee and committee chair, you were an amazing team!

Today we celebrate! Here we are gathered from all walks of life, hailing from diverse geographies, backgrounds and experiences to celebrate amazing accomplishments. To Chancellor Gaber, the 2023 commencement chair, co-chair and committee, thank you for giving me the opportunity to share a few empowering thoughts.

My resume, my curriculum Vitae, includes descriptors such as experienced, capable, competent, highly effective and dynamic. However, I'm sure that ChatGPT, in a matter of seconds, could provide fresh, alternative and more attractive adjectives. Nevertheless, I stand here today not to talk about me, but to talk about us!

Here we are, ready to enter a new world. Yes, I said "new" because the world as we knew it 10 to 15 minutes ago no longer exists. Now, I'm not that old but I came up in a time where, as a middle and high school math and science teacher and former school principal, the contextual application of the word half-life applied to Chemistry. Well, in today's new world that word has etymologically evolved and now has application in the job market. Let me explain. I participated in an economic development session just a few weeks ago and shared my thoughts with regards to mitigating the challenges of preparing a new generation of employees that will be needed to replace a generation that has paid their dues and are ready to throttle down and live life on their own terms during a time when, get this, the half-life of many jobs and professions is now five years or less!

I have a charge for us today! There is a world screaming for us! There is a world waiting on us! It is my hope that the pressures of progress begin to squeeze us like sponges.

It is my hope that the pressures of progress that we all possess put the squeeze on us so much so that every person we encounter on a personal or professional level will become saturated, soaked and dripping wet with...

Number 1) The need to be lovers of true, authentic, scholarly knowledge, not social media trends and simple Google searches;

Number 2) An understanding that the love of learning needs to be inter and intra-generationally contagious; may our influence cause every generation from Boomer to GenAlpha to love and appreciate new authentic knowledge!;

Number 3) The understanding that we need to take all that we've learned and use it to equip those within our professions, our spheres of influence, and our communities to embrace the skill to adapt, improvise and overcome as they (we) navigate our rapidly evolving world.

Change is inevitable; however, it is not as bad as many make it out to be because change agents like us will soon cross this revered stage full of new knowledge, new confidence, new perspectives, new relationships, new swag, new purpose and new vision ready to erupt. And to our families, our friends, our colleagues, our superiors and subordinates - please leave the towels where they are. Oblige us and soak! Become saturated and let the drip be the sign that 2023 terminal & master degreed university of north carolina at charlotte graduates are now on the scene!

#SALUTE!

E.K. FRETWELL, U.S. HIGHER EDUCATION LEADER
 (1923-2012)

Dr. E.K. Fretwell used his national higher education leadership to gain recognition for UNC Charlotte. He became the University's second chancellor in January 1979 after serving as president of State University of New York College at Buffalo, and before that as assistant commissioner for higher education of the New York State Education Department. During his career, he led some of America's most prominent higher education associations - president of the American Association for Higher Education, president of the American Association of State Colleges and Universities, chair of the American Council on Education, and chair of the Council on Postsecondary Accreditation. In addition, Fretwell was named one of the 100 most effective chancellors and university presidents in the United States in a national study. After retiring in 1989, he served as interim president of the five-campus University of Massachusetts, authored several books on university management, and consulted on higher education around the country and the world. He was awarded an Honorary Doctor of Public Service degree during UNC Charlotte's spring 1998 Commencement ceremonies. In 2002, he received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association's Alumnus by Choice Award. Fretwell died October 18, 2012.

DEPARTMENT OF READING AND ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

The Board of Governors Award for Excellence in Teaching was established in 1994 to underscore the importance of teaching and to encourage, identify, recognize, reward and support good teaching within the university. This award is given annually to a tenured faculty member from each campus. Winners must have taught at their present institutions for at least seven years. The 17 recipients were nominated by individual campus committees and selected by the Board of Governors Committee on Personnel and Tenure. Each award winner will receive a commemorative bronze medallion and a $12,500 cash prize.

This year, UNC Charlotte's recipient of the Board of Governors Award for Excellence in Teaching is being presented to Dr. Adriana Laza Medina. Medina is an associate professor of reading education in the Department of Reading and Elementary Education in the Cato College of Education.

Michael Putnam, chair of the Department of Reading and Elementary Education, said, "Dr. Medina's teaching philosophy is guided by the importance of experiential learning, where students are actively engaged and participating in experiences that enhance their growth. She is focused on providing relevant experiences that are directly informed by and connected to the community and world."

Medina is a global educator and the world is her classroom. She strives to broaden the global and local perspectives of her teacher education students, so, in turn, they can broaden the perspectives of their K-12 students and prepare them to continue to address the challenges of our independent world.

Medina currently serves as a principal investigator on three grants. She is creating an observation protocol to assess literacy and is collaborating with faculty at NC A&T and UNC Wilmington to focus on undergraduate research and develop global ready future teachers. She has also been awarded a Gambrell Fellowship, which is focused on service learning and examining language stress in Hispanic adults.

In 2022, Medina was awarded UNC Charlotte's top teaching award, the Bank of America Award for Teaching Excellence.

ABILYN D. McCONNELL
BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

College is a time of redefinitions. We redefine our friendships. We redefine “good” and “bad” grades. Most importantly, though, we redefine success. When I graduated from high school, I had my life figured out. I had the next four years planned out to a T and had a detailed outline for the rest of my life as well. My freshman year, I was going to breeze through classes, land an internship at the company of my dreams, and travel the world in my free time.

Then I got a C on a test and as I sobbed on the floor of my dorm, I redefined my future. I was going to be a failure. I was going to fail out of school and my dreams would remain little more than the faintest wisp of an idea that once was. But that would be lame. So I got up and I went to class and I worked hard and I did better. And while there were always bumps in the road, I learned that one bad test score did not define me as a student. I also learned how to study.

Then just when I began to have some promising summer prospects, the COVID-19 pandemic shut down the world. Suddenly, like many of you, my carefully laid plans were torn to bits and stomped on for good measure. How would I ever land the job of my dreams now? I was going to be a failure. I was going to graduate with no experience and my dreams would be an idea almost achievable, but forever out of reach. But that would be sad. So I got up and I signed up for online summer classes and I continued on. And while there were many bumps in the road that summer, I continued to learn and push my boundaries. I also did a lot of puzzles.

As I have moved through college, there have been many, many redefinitions. And while this was hard at first and each redefinition felt like the end of the world, I somehow survived each and every one.

George Carlin, a comedian that came up when I googled ‘quotes about success’, once said “if at first you don’t succeed, redefine success”. And while the only reason I know that quote is because of this very speech, I hope that it resonates as much with all of you as it does with me. Success is not a single metric by which everyone is measured and it is not a static measure either. Success is how you define it. It changes, grows, shrinks, moves, but how you define it will never be exactly the same as anyone else. So the next time you find yourself panicking because your plans have changed and success looks different now, take a breath - and then another.

I would like to end this speech by thanking those who have made my time here possible. I would like to thank my friends for putting up with me for the past four years. I would like to thank my mom for teaching me everything I know, my dad for giving me the humor with which I used to write this speech, and my brother for being my best friend. I would like to thank our professors for giving us the knowledge to succeed in whatever way we define success. I would like to thank my research mentors Dr. Williams and Dr. Landon Mackey for inspiring me to pursue my passion for renewable energy. Lastly, I would like to thank the University Honors Program, Craig and Darla Albert and the Albert Engineering and Leadership Scholars Program, and The William States Lee College of Engineering for supporting me throughout my undergraduate career.

Thank you all and I wish you the best of luck finding your own success, no matter how many times you redefine it. And congratulations to us all; let’s go change the world!

JAMES H. WOODWARD, BUILDING FOR THE FUTURE

Dr. James H. Woodward became UNC Charlotte’s third chancellor in 1989, immediately establishing himself as one of the leading executives of the Charlotte metropolitan region. A U.S. Air Force veteran, he worked in private industry and taught at North Carolina State University, the U.S. Air Force Academy, and the University of Alabama at Birmingham, where he was a senior vice president for academic affairs, prior to coming to UNC Charlotte. Under his leadership, UNC Charlotte launched ambitious plans for both physical and intellectual growth. Woodward built strong support among the region’s corporate and political leaders, obtained approval to expand the University’s mission to include doctoral programs, and raised the University to doctoral/research intensive status. He established UNC Charlotte Uptown to serve students in the central business district. An engineer, Woodward generated support to build the James H. Barnhardt Student Activity Center and the Irwin Belk Track and Field Center, obtained state funding for doubling the size of the J. Murrey Atkins Library, and was instrumental in garnering public support to pass a $3.1 billion statewide bond referendum that enabled UNC Charlotte to construct or renovate nearly a dozen buildings. He retired in 2005.

Woodward has received numerous honors, including the naming of the science and technology building in 2005 as James H. and Martha H. Woodward Hall in recognition of his 16 years of service. In May 2011, UNC Charlotte awarded him an honorary degree, Doctor of Public Service. Woodward received the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association’s Alumnus by Choice Award in 2012. In November 2017, he was awarded the North Carolina Award for Public Service, the highest award a civilian can receive from the Governor.

PHILIP L. DUBOIS ENROLLMENT GROWTH AND ACADEMIC EXPANSION

At the time of his retirement on June 30, 2020, Dr. Philip L. Dubois, UNC Charlotte's fourth chancellor, was the senior chancellor in the University of North Carolina system. He led the system's fastest-growing institution, directing a 43% growth in enrollment, an expansion of academic programs, implementation of diversity-related initiatives, growth in research funding, and significant construction and renovation of campus facilities. Under Dubois' strategic direction, football was added to the University's athletics offerings in 2013, and he collaborated with elected officials and the Charlotte Area Transit System to make possible the construction of the light rail line from Center City Charlotte to the UNC Charlotte campus. He also took the University to new levels in fundraising, overseeing the largest private campaign in UNC Charlotte's history, which exceeded its $200 million goal. Dubois' career in higher education spanned more than 40 years. Previously, he served as president of the University of Wyoming, provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at UNC Charlotte and associate vice chancellor for academic programs at the University of California, Davis. Dubois has been recognized regionally and nationally as an expert in higher education, achieving many awards and accolades during his respected career. In 2020, Dubois was recognized by the American Council on Education with its Outstanding Mentor Award, by the UNC Charlotte Alumni Association with its Honorary Alumnus Award, and by North Carolina Governor Roy Cooper with The Order of the Long Leaf Pine, the state's highest civilian award.

HONORARY DEGREE
DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE
DEMOND T. MARTIN

Demond Martin graduated from UNC Charlotte in 1997 with a Bachelor of Science in Accounting, having served as both student body president and chapter president of Alpha Phi Alpha fraternity for two years. From UNC Charlotte, Martin took on the role of Assistant to the White House Chief of Staff, followed by becoming a business consultant and then earning his MBA from Harvard. He enjoyed a distinguished career with Adage Capital Management for 21 years as a senior partner investing in the Consumer sector. Martin now serves as the CEO and Co-Founder of Wellwithall, a new and innovative health and wellness consumer products company, that pours a significant portion of its profits into health equity for Black, Brown and underserved communities.

In terms of exceptional achievements on behalf of the University and beyond, Martin has contributed consistently and significantly ever since he was a student here. His efforts are particularly focused on supporting underrepresented and underserved youth. In 2016, Martin and his wife, Kia, provided a significant gift to establish the Martin Scholars Program, which is one of the University's leading merit-based scholarship programs supporting high-achieving students with the highest financial need and providing full scholarships for 15 students per year on average. Martin closely engages with UNC Charlotte students, serving as a personal mentor, supporting learning-based experiences, and establishing network connections for students after graduation. In 2016, the University recognized the leadership of Martin and fellow alum Karen Popp by naming the Student Union building the Karen A. Popp and Demond T. Martin Student Union.

Martin's contributions to UNC Charlotte further include support of the University Transition Opportunities Program, the Herman Thomas Scholarship Fund, and the Student Emergency Fund, which was critical for students throughout COVID-19.

Martin's myriad contributions extend beyond the University and include providing initial funding for the MLK memorial in Boston, establishing the Tonia Taylor Fund for Health Equity, and the BSI program at Berklee College of Music. In addition to his service on the UNC Charlotte Foundation Board, Demond has served on a number of non-profit boards including as a trustee at the Berklee College of Music, and currently the Dana Farber Cancer Institute, Grammy Global Venture Board, and the Obama Foundation.

Martin's continued support of the University has earned him UNC Charlotte's Outstanding Young Alumnus Award and its Distinguished Alumnus Award.

For his countless efforts on behalf of UNC Charlotte and the citizens of Charlotte, the region and the state, The University of North Carolina at Charlotte awards the honorary degree, Doctor of Public Service, to Demond T. Martin.

CAMPBELL H. MEDDERS

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, MARKETING

If someone had told me four years ago that I would be giving the commencement speech at the UNC Charlotte graduation ceremony, I would not have believed them. Because that meant that I finally figured out what I wanted to do. Growing up, everything excited me. As a child I wanted to be a teacher, the president, and a makeup artist. At one point I even wanted to be an attorney - I took the LSAT and everything. It wasn't until I sat down and asked myself what I wanted OUT of a career that my decision became clear. I wanted to make an impact and improve the lives of others by doing something that I am good at.

My name is Campbell Medders from Waxhaw, North Carolina, and I am a Marketing major with a minor in Writing, Rhetoric, and Digital Studies. After some research, I quickly gained excitement for my new career path and began to consider what I was looking for in a University. I knew that I wanted to go to a school that would foster growth and provide me with internship and career opportunities. I knew I wanted a bigger city with endless things to do to stay entertained. I wanted to find a community that supported me and challenged me to transform into the woman I would become in college. Charlotte met all of these requirements for me and ended up being the only school that I even toured. However, two days after I committed to attending UNC Charlotte, I heard the news of the tragic event that occurred on April 30, 2019. I had a decision to make - am I still going to go?

As we can guess by me standing up here that the answer was yes, the same answer that you all made. These past four years have been full of trials and tribulations that have left each of us asking if we will continue to say yes. Our freshman year we were sent off to Spring Break and told we would not be returning to finish the school year in person. But eventually, we came back.

Coming back has been different each time and presented us with new challenges. Throughout our time here, we have gained a new Chancellor, seen countless construction projects, and even completely rebranded. And everytime we said "yes" and we came back. But let's pretend for a moment that we said no. What would we have missed out on? Meeting our best friends, late night trips to Cook Out, taking accounting (many of us more than once), tailgates, parents weekends, and spending all of our DB on Chick-fil-A in Prospector?

But the one thing that we would have missed out on most is what it means to be a Niner. Being resilient. We have learned that we are capable of taking situations that do not work in our favor, saying yes, and tackling them head on. And we are not expected to do it alone. We were blessed with support from our professors, our organization leaders, our friends, the Charlotte faculty and administration, our Greek Life advisors, our families, and everyone else who encouraged and pushed us along the way with patience and love. But never forget that resilience is not equivalent to perfection. We will fail, we will make the wrong decisions, and we will be tempted to give up. I'm sure we can each think of times throughout these past four years that made us feel like we missed the mark. Maybe we failed a test, did not get an internship we wanted, or worst of all, maybe we went all four years without ever wearing green on Wednesday. Failure is inevitable and expected but resilience sets us apart. Everyone should take pride in the resilience they possess and have proven by sitting here with us today. Whatever paths we go down next, I am confident that we will take this resilience with us and achieve more than we ever knew we could. And throughout these endeavors, our family at UNC Charlotte will be cheering us on. Congratulations, we made it!

HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY

UNC Charlotte was one of a generation of institutions founded in metropolitan areas following World War II. Created as the Charlotte Center, the institution opened on September 23, 1946. It offered evening classes to an initial class of 278 freshmen and sophomores in the facilities of Charlotte's Central High School. In 1949, the city's pioneering business and civic leaders, aware of the region's unmet need for a public institution of higher education, moved to have the Charlotte Center taken over by the city school district and operated as Charlotte College, offering the first two years of college courses.

By 1961, the firmly established Charlotte College was experiencing rapid growth that resulted in the establishment of a campus of its own. In the same year, Charlotte College leaders moved its burgeoning student population into the first two buildings on what would become a 1,000-acre campus ten miles from downtown Charlotte. In 1963, the North Carolina legislature approved bills making Charlotte College a four-year, state-supported institution. In 1965, the legislature passed bills designating the College the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, the fourth campus of the consolidated state system. Expansion continued as the University began offering master's degrees in 1969. In 1992, UNC Charlotte received authorization for its first doctoral programs. UNC Charlotte is the state's urban research institution and the system's second largest public university with greater than 30,000 students enrolled.

THE UNIVERSITY NICKNAME - 49ERS

The "49ers" nickname was chosen in recognition of the importance of the year 1949 in the history of the University. UNC Charlotte, which began as an off-campus center of the University of North Carolina, would have died in 1949 had Bonnie Cone and her supporters not convinced the N.C. Legislature that Charlotte needed a permanent institution of higher learning. Charlotte College was established that year. It is fortuitous that the University campus is located on N.C. Highway 49 and that Charlotte has a rich gold mining history.

A bronze statue of the 49er Gold Miner sits in the Cato College of Education and College of Health and Human Services Plaza. The statue recalls the region's history as a gold mining center and symbolizes the pioneering spirit and determination that has led to UNC Charlotte's dramatic growth.

CHANCELLOR SHARON L. GABER

Sharon L. Gaber, Ph.D., an academic with a background in city and regional planning, became the fifth chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in July 2020. Since Gaber joined Charlotte, the University has embarked on “Shaping What’s Next,” a bold 10-year strategic plan that articulates a new vision as a globally recognized top-tier research university. The University also was recognized for its response to the global COVID-19 pandemic, receiving a 2021 Excellence and Innovation Award from the American Association of State Colleges and Universities (AASCU).

Deeply engaged in community and regional activities, she is a member of Charlotte's Leading on Opportunity Council, the Charlotte Executive Leadership Council, Women Executives, and the International Women's Forum - Carolinas.

In 2022, Gaber received the Career Mastered Distinguished Leadership Award, and was named by The Charlotte Business Journal one of the top 10 leaders who will drive Charlotte’s next stage of growth. She also has been named to Business North Carolina’s Power List for three consecutive years and was designated by Education Dive as “one of five higher education leaders to watch in 2018 and beyond.”

At the national level, Gaber has served on multiple NCAA committees and is the first UNC System chancellor to serve as a member of Excelencia in Education’s Presidents for Latino Student Success.

A native of Southern California, Gaber earned an A.B. in Economics and Urban Studies from Occidental College, an M.P.L. in Urban Planning from the University of Southern California, and a Ph.D. in City and Regional Planning from Cornell University. She has written numerous articles and co-authored a book on planning research methods.

Prior to UNC Charlotte, Gaber served for five years as president of the University of Toledo. Previously, she served as provost and vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of Arkansas, as an interim provost at Auburn University, and a faculty member and administrator at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln.

Officially the first woman to serve as chancellor of UNC Charlotte, Gaber follows the trail blazed by founding educator Bonnie Cone, who led the institution from 1946-66.

Dr. Gaber is the proud mother of three adult children.
